

WOMEN'S MONTH 2021

Trailblazers: Women Making History

MAR
1-31

Exploring the 100th Anniversary of the Admission of Women

Special Collections and University Archives will feature two physical exhibits in Newman Library. The first, from March-August 2021, will explore the history of this decision on campus and the roles of women prior to the fall of 1921.

Visit the exhibits in Newman Library and learn more at vtwomenshistory.lib.vt.edu

MAR
8

International Women's Day | 10am - 3pm | In-person

Celebrate the many accomplishments of women here in the Virginia Tech community, and all over the world. Watch a pre-recorded panel that highlights the professional careers of our talented and accomplished panelists, followed by a discussion about these contributions.

Register at bit.ly/3dsftWS

MAR
15

Representation in Leadership | 2pm | Zoom

In this "fire side chat" style Q&A, Congresswoman Sharice Davids will discuss what it means to her personally to be one of the first Native women to serve in congress and an openly gay congressional leader.

Register at bit.ly/3uhIVWE

MAR
23-24

Clothesline Project Display | 9am - 5pm | In-person

A visual testimony to the shattering effect of gender-based violence and the impact it has on society. Survivors of violence -- and friends and families of victims -- create shirts emblazoned with direct messages and strong illustrations.

Located on sidewalk on College Ave between Draper Rd & Main St (Outdoor Stage side)

MAR
24

Equal Pay Day Workshop | 4pm | Zoom

Salary negotiation workshop designed to address the gender pay gap and help college women obtain fair and realistic salaries. Determine your value, create a budget, identify a target salary, and negotiate to get the salary and benefits you deserve.

Join at bit.ly/3qCcizQ

Visit womenscenter.vt.edu/womo for a complete listing of the month's programs and events. If you need accommodations, please contact Ashley LeDuc at aleduc@vt.edu or 540-231-7806.