

WOMEN'S MONTH 2022

100 YEARS OF WOMEN AT VIRGINIA TECH

begins
MAR
8
10am

The Twenties: Virginian Women after the Great War (exhibition)
Tuesdays-Saturdays, 10am-4pm, Alexander Black House and Cultural Center Gallery
Exhibit runs through April 23rd. Celebration reception on March 15th @ 6pm
Sponsored by the VT Apparel, Housing, and Resource Management

MAR
18
8pm

Hope Matters: Why Overcoming Doom and Gloom is Essential to Achieving Climate Justice
Anne and Ellen Fife Theatre, Moss Arts Center
Sponsored by the Center for Communicating Science

MAR
22
2pm

A Tale of Two Directors: Two Different Pathways to the Directorship—
Decisions That Advanced Their Careers and their Leadership Outlooks
That Helped Them Get There
Via Zoom (use QR code for details)
Co-sponsored by the Enrollment Management departments at Virginia Tech and Radford University

MAR
27
3pm

A Conversation with Ms. Opal Lee: The Grandmother of Juneteenth
Burruss Auditorium and Livestream (use QR code for details)
Co-sponsored by the Elizabeth A. "Betsy" Flanagan Women in Leadership and Philanthropy Endowed Lecture Fund, Student Affairs, and VT Engage: The Center for Leadership and Service Learning

MAR
29
9am

The Clothesline Project Display
The Drillfield (Rain dates: April 5 and April 12)
Workshops: March 28-April 1, 9am-4:30pm at the Women's Center
Co-sponsored by Montgomery County NOW, United Feminist Movement, Women's Center at Virginia Tech, and the Women's Resource Center of the NRV

MAR
31
7pm

Take Back the Night Rally and March
College Avenue, Henderson Lawn Outdoor Stage
(Rain location: Graduate Life Center Auditorium)
Sponsored by United Feminist Movement

Scan for full calendar of programs or visit www.womenscenter.vt.edu

100 YEARS OF
WOMEN
AT VIRGINIA TECH

If you need accommodations, please contact Anna LoMascolo at 231-7806